Experience

PeopleGamez.com

CEO, Co-Founder

Dharwad, India

Apr 2022 – Present

Strategy consulting firm with $45K ARR catalyzing growth of purpose driven ventures with strategic realignment by leveraging gamification and data science. I lead a team of 8-15 freelancers and oversee strategy, business development, and client deliverables.

- Repositioned GrowthPal, a Singapore based M&A marketplace as an extended CFO team, establishing a recurring revenue model. Drove international expansion, boosting deal value by 6x, and reduced the sales cycle by 40% by pivoting to family-run ventures.
- Innovated a first-of-its-kind gamified tool to capture organizational needs and team energy for Juice Inc, a Canadian consultancy firm contributing to 35% of revenue, 4x deal size, and 2x coaching interventions.
- Convinced US-based serial entrepreneur to pivot his fintech venture, Jugad, despite existing VC commitments, in favor of our alternative proposal detailing audience segmentation, competitive benchmarking and value proposition alignment.
- Secured $21K funding from two Central Government ministries for innovation, the only venture chosen among 36 at our incubator.
- Recognized as a global thought leader in data driven simulations; Delivered sessions at multiple international conferences including ILYF Global Business Conclave (10000+ footfall), Gamicon48v, SeriousPlayConf (Canada), and AEE Conference (Singapore).
- Established cross-functional workflows and data-driven performance tracking, boosting team efficiency by 25% and enabling seamless asynchronous collaboration with my virtual team of freelancers across time zones, reducing operational costs by 50%.
- Forged strategic partnerships with facilitators across 7 countries with tailored value proposition and competitive differentiation. We scaled our simulations to 40K+ learners with local distribution, global digital footprint and data driven feedback loops.

MADIEE Games
